For couples who don't live within the Benefice of Fittleworth and Stopham, under Church law, couples must establish what is known as a 'qualifying connection'. This involves them appearing at church on a Sunday once a month for a minimum six-month period. It's very light touch and couples who do come to a Sunday service will find a very friendly welcome. Attending for the reading of banns, normally on the first three Sundays of the month before the wedding, is not obligatory but, again, the congregation will love meeting a wedding couple.
